BEST PERSONAL TRAINER

Debra Tourek, Energy Pilates and Fitness

A well-known name on the Woodbury fitness scene for about 15 years, Debra Tourek opened Energy Pilates and Fitness in March 2008, offering a variety of functional, full-body workouts including pilates, yoga, kickboxing and even barefoot cardio. Tourek's goal: that each client walk out the door feeling good about themselves instead of focusing on what their body looks like. "After working out with Debra for a few months, what strikes me the most is how she respects everyone on the same level, no matter their fitness level," says a current client. 2110 Eagle Creek Lane, Suite 200, 651.998.0960. energypilatesfitness.com

BEST BURGER

American Burger Emporium

At American Burger Emporium, you can build your burger with choice toppings or order a signature American icon. Try the popular Mount Rushmore, featuring fresh Angus beef smothered with four cheeses; the Teddy Roosevelt, topped with pepper jack and jalapeno bacon; or the Buffalo Bill, made with bison, sliced bleu cheese and ciderhouse bacon. Don't forget the must-have sidekick: delectable, crumbly skinny fries. If beef's not your thing, this place offers chicken, turkey, ahi tuna and southwest veggie burgers as well, and mini-burgers for the kids. 7455 Currell Blvd., Suite 108. 651.739.6299

BEST REMODELER

Ispiri

Since debuting in Woodbury two years ago, Ispiri has made its mark with its dedication to customer service, details and design, bringing together function and aesthetics. The design/build/remodel company recently launched a handyman service, expanding its scope from small "to-do" lists up to whole home remodels, and everything in between. 710 Commerce Drive, Suite 150, 651.578.0122. ispiridbr.com

BEST BREAKFAST

Key's Café and Bakery

The bakers at Key's Café and Bakery arrive at 4 a.m. each day, churning out homemade caramel rolls, muffins and scones. Manager Amy Mahowald says those fresh-baked goodies, as well as Key's quality ingredients and generous portions, draw a loyal breakfast crowd. "The farmer's omelet is probably the most popular breakfast choice," says Mahowald. "Our pancakes are fantastic, and the Italian sausage can't be beat." 1750 Weir Drive, 651.731.5397. keyscafe.com

BEST PLACE FOR JEWELRY

Johnson Jewelers

One of the original Seasons Market businesses, Johnson Jewelers has provided jewelry to the Woodbury community for almost 20 years. Bob and Pat Johnson and their children, Karen and Jeff, give that personal, family touch that's a hallmark of this family business. "We offer a full jewelry line and give our customers the best deal we can, every day," says Bob Johnson. "We currently have a lot of diamonds in stock; just like houses, diamonds are an excellent buy right now." 783 Radio Drive, Suite 100D, 651.735.4400. johnsonjewelers.com

BEST FLORIST

Woodlane Flowers

Wade Anderson, co-owner of Woodlane Flowers, notes

the uniqueness of the floral business. "We create and design a perishable product seven days a week; it's challenging yet exciting each day," he says. Anderson's strong network of local growers supplies diverse, fresh blooms year-round, resulting in Woodlane's consistent high-quality arrangements. "Birthdays, proms, new babies, weddings and funerals are important times; we work hard to earn our customers' trust at these special moments in their lives," says Anderson. 1536 Woodlane Drive, 651.738.1029. woodlaneflowers.com
